Herman Alofsin, 2d, Corporation Counsel

Is Named by Court of Common Council to Succeed the Late Amos A. Browning-Fire Underwriters Recommends tions Referred to Fire Commissioners for Considerations -Petitions Acted Upon and Department Bills Approved.

HERMAN ALOFSIN, 2ND.

At the adjourned meeting of the court of common council on Wednesday evening Herman Alefsin 2nd, was elected corporation counsel for the city of Norwich by a vote of 7 to 5. The other naminee for the office was Joseph T. Fanning. Mr. Alofein succeeds the late Amos A. Browning, who held the office of corporation counsel from June, 1916, until the day of his death, June, 1915, until the day of his death, Aug. 25th last.

The meeting was called to order in the council chamber by His Honor Mayor Allyn L. Brown shortly after 8 o'clock. All the members of the council with the exception of Alderman Milo R. Waters were present, and Sheriff William Carroll was in attendance. The minutes of the previous meeting took the usual course.

Petitions for Gas Pumpe. Petiti ns were received and disposed of as follows:
From J. Frank Healy, Jr., for permission to install a gasoline pump and tank in count of the premises 415 North Main street, and for permission to excavate for six feet in order to connect with compressed air pipe in street.

and said he had ever given the city good service.

Upon recommendation of the finance committee the damage claims of W. E. Perry and of Bessie Connor were distillowed. The former was a claim for damages sustained by Mr. Perry's automobile which skidded on fresh oil on Washington street and the latter was a claim for a fall on Roath street.

Edward DeWolfe, Joseph Matrey and John Lunch were then appointed special constables at the request of the water department. The appointments were made by ballot. City Treasurer Charles S. Avery's summary of receipts, May 16, 1917, to August 15, 1917, is as follows: Cash on hand May 15, 1917 2,522.59 Water Works ... $12,783.04 Dept. of Public Works—Widening Thames street 5,000,000 street 5,000.00 Dutside account ...
